China Food & Beverage Manufacturing Summit & Expo

Background

It is predicted that the sales revenue of China's dietary supplements market will rise from 260 billion yuan in 2016 to 400 billion yuan in 2021, with an average annual growth rate of 10%-15%. The dietary supplements gradually transfer from luxury consumption to ordinary consumption. 'China food and Nutrition Development Program (2014-2020)' mentioned that this national plan would actively improve the people's nutrient intake by setting a priority to developing the nutritional and fortified food sectors of food ingredients market .

The total global consumption of special medical purpose food is 56 billion to 64 billion yuan annually, and the market scale increases annually by 6%. From the malnutrition patients in America, 65% consume special medical purpose food. In Britain that number only reaches 27% and in China 1.6%. The value of mainland consumption of special purpose food reaches 600 million yuan annually, which is just about 1% of global market.

'The China Food & Beverage Manufacturing Summit & Expo 2018' will maintain 'Nutritional Food and Dietary Supplement Session', 'Functional Beverage Session', 'Innovative Packaging Session' and 'Latest Processing and Automation Technology Session', and newly added 'Food for Special Medical Purpose Session'. The summit will bring 35 speeches covering several hot topics including food and beverage industry regulation, development trend, formula, food safety, innovative packaging and latest processing technology.

Enterprises should seize the opportunities to maintain the leading position in the industry. Manufacturers can better understand how the diversity of products and service can influence the business relying on the suggestions, trend and regulation analysis from experts

The summit will gather industry professionals with goal of creating a platform for discussion about new opportunities and how to increase capacity and reduce production costs. The audiences can expand connections and seize potential business opportunities. You cannot miss this summit!
